Government Accountability Office, 2004 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)57178875 Subject: Social indicators -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Summary (Continued From Previous Page) Approximate duration Name of system population (in years) National level outside the United States German System of Social Indicators 83, 000, 000 30 United Kingdom Sustainable Development Indicators 60, 000, 000 5 Supranational level European Structural Indicators 450, 000, 000 4 Source: GAO. Note: for more information on each of these systems, see app. III of this report. The Web links for each of these systems can be found at <http://www.keyindicators.org>. a Since GAO conducted its interviews in fall 2003, Minnesota Milestones ceased to be an active system. State officials told us that the Web site will be maintained but there are no plans to update the data in the near future. GAO selected comprehensive key indicator systems that were recognized by experts and others as being useful and accessible; and had been in existence for more than 2 years. Also, GAO asked national associations representing state and local governments to validate the selections. The European examples were selected after consultation with OECD, several European national statistical offices, and other experts. GAO selected one system in each of the topical areas it reviewed on the basis of experts recommendations. GAO also conducted a literature review. Importantly, GAO has not defined explicit, objective criteria for the success or failure of a comprehensive key indicator system. More research is needed in this area because so many situational, evaluative, and contextual factors influence the determination of such criteria. Most of the graphics presented in this report from the indicator systems GAO...
