Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Century of Law in North Carolina A fair test of the worth of a government is the affection in which it is held by the citizen. It is by this standard we love to measure our brave State. Wherever a North Carolina man may go, his heart remains with his people; the sylvan Toe wanderer through the woods; Mount Mitchell, standing forth without a peer; the bleak sand-dunes of Nags Head - every foot of ground is dear to us. As the wintry winds blow through her forests of pine, or the sounding waves beat against the shores, where Virginia Dare was born, or the Cape Fear majestically sweeps to the deeper sea, it is of Moore s Creek, Guilford, King s Mountain, and of freedom, they tell - it is of unyielding resistance to unjust authority, of undying devotion to free government, based upon law. This is our heritage, this our birthright. How has it come about, that there is still one spot on this mad and frantic globe, one spot where no red flag has ever waved, where the people are confiding and contented, where the God of our fathers is still enthroned? Constitution - Ark of Covenant. One who loves his State as a true son should love her will try to make true answer. We are a people, one in race, one in language, one in religion, and one in ideals; a people without itching ears. We have no great cities; our per capita wealth is evenly distributed; eighty percent of our population are tillers of the soil; more than fifty percent of the white adults are landowners; less than...
