I have never done anything for which I am more willing to be solely responsible; but, having commenced without my name, i have thought it most suitable to the modesty I ought to observe, to let it still appear in that form. To ministers of the Gospel of every name, I would make an earnest appeal. You hold an office greatly and deservedly honoured; but more honoured in its origin than men can honour it. These Societies have your favour, and could not long exist without it. You speak for them; you buy their books, and you take up contributions of charity for them. I ask you to consider the case, and what I have...
